W. S. Williams, James R. Keene, James B. Brady and P. R. Hitchbook Follow in the List-Ring Loses $200,000 on the Day-Johnson Cleans Up on Jacquin.

The meeting which ended at Brighton Beach yesterday was the most successful from every point of view in the history of this popular track. The attendance was greater than ever before, the racing was of a vastly improved quality and the public got the bulk of the money from a speculative standpoint. In all 139 races were run, in which sixty-four favorites were successful. Many heavily played second choices and good things supported at liberal odds were triumphant, so that it is safe to say that only a handful of bookmakers made money on the session at the beach. T. Hitchcock, Jr., heads the list winning owners with $30,690 to his credit. W. S. Williams, owner of Ram's Horn, is second with $20,000, while James R. Keene is third with $45,325. James B. Brady stands fourth with $12,990 and F. R. Hitchcock is fifth with $11,235. Other successful owners in the list are H. P. Whitney, $8,270; P. J. Dwyer, $6,675; George J. Long, $6,195; Fred Burlew, $6,200; C. C. Smithson, $5,002; J. D. Odom. $4,770; Newcastle Stable, $4,885; Oneck Stable, $4,420; Kenliworth Stable, $4,845; W. W. Darden, $4,935; Woodford Clay, $4,000; August Belmont, $3,470; G. C. Bennett, $3,900; Cotton, $3,190; H. B. Duryea, $3,070; J. W. Fuller, $3,430; R. H. McCarter Potter, $4,000; Sydney Paget, $3,220; C. E. Rowe, $3,300, and T. L. Watt, $3,065. Jockey Miller carried off he riding honors for the meeting with twenty nmers, in spite of the fact that he did not ride for seven days.

Salvidere and Hylas won the bulk of the money for T. Hitchcock, Jr. Salvidere scored three times in Mr. Hitchcock's colors, winning the Montauk Stakes, the Junior Stakes and the Winged Foot Handicap, for a total of $18,630. Hylas captured the Brighton Steeplechase, which was worth $6,230 to the winner. Ram's Horn won the Brighton Handicap, placing W. S. Williams second on the list with one race. Salvidere's race vesterday was pronounced a marvel. He picked up 126 pounds and gave fourteen pounds to Penarris, twenty-nine to Charles G. Gates, seventeen to Yowric, thirty-six to Lord Lovat, thirty-four to Dan Buhre, wenty-four to Remiss and James Crawford. He won so easily that the sharps were ready to hail him as the champion two-year-old. But it must be remembered that in the Winged Foot he had only a fair lot to beat.

It is a remarkable fact that both Salvidere and Accountant, who won the big stakes yesterday, were sold at the order of W. H. Brown of Pittsburg before he realized of what value they really were. In fact, it is said that Brown is now rather cut up about the matter and wishes that he had not been so hasty. Accountant sold for $45,000, but James B. Brady has more than won him out. The Filigrane colt's share of the Derby yesterday was $12,000. He earned $15,585 when he took the Realization Stakes, with $14,550 as a result of success in the Tidal. As Brady can be seen that $45,000 was not such a big for the colt after all. Accountant has other valuable engagements, and as Matt Allen is handling him with his usual kill, it looks as if Brady would have more bankrolls to salt away before the end of the season. Brady did not bet much on Accountant yesterday, for the stake was valuable enough without putting down checks at such prohibitive odds. Knowing how Brady has looked at his horses in previous races, a large crowd of curious race goers gathered near the judges' stand, while the Derby was being run, to watch Brady, who was in a private box in the grandstand. But this time Brady was very cool. He watched the race from end o end and then, as Accountant neared th wire, the folly turfman took off his pearl colored derby hat and made a low bow, indicative of his deep admiration for the game borse that bore his red, white and blue jacket. Maybe Davy Johnson didn't get the money on Jacquin in the sixth race! And Frank Farrell, Joe Cassidy, Alderman James Gaffney and a few others who were in the know! Jacquin had won a fine race on Friday in the mud from a poor lot, but the form players did not believe that he could beat Far West and Nannie Hodge. When the price against Jacquin had receded to 7 to 2 the Johnson-Farrell-Cassidy plunge made its appearance in the ring. Commissioners turned from book to book plastering the layers with all before starter Dade released the gate, had been backed down to 13 to 5. He won on the bit and after the summing up it was estimated that the ring paid out all of $60,000 on his success. Johnson has been playing in much luck recently and is on his feet again. He will probably take a crack at the game at Saratoga. There was a general hustle for trains to the Spa after the last race. While the Cavanagh Special, which leaves the Grand Central Station at 1:30 P. M. to-day, will carry thirty carloads of regulars, many took the 7 o'clock train last night, while the Albany boats will go up the river to-night crowded. Two long trains of special horse cars pulled out of Sheepshead Bay after the races, while several baggage cars filled with the pagaphernalia of the ring also left for the Spa. Among the bookmakers yesterday there was a rumor that there might be some trouble at Saratoga in view of the shutting down of Canfield's, Ullman's and other gambling clubs. It was said that the same influences that had caused these places to close might be brought to bear in the ring, but those in authority said they did not believe there would be any cause for worry. The case of Jockey Bell, who was suspended by the Brighton stewards for a bad ride on Bobbie Kean, has been turned over to the Jockey Club for further action. A mass of evidence in connection with the case has been gathered and a thorough investigation will be made before the boy is either cleared of ugly charges or is found guilty and indefinitely suspended. Incidentally, the Brighton stewards fined Jockey Notter $100 for rough riding in two races on Friday.

Previous winners of the Derby were Watercolor, Hyphen, Charles Elwood, Ort Wells and Sysonby, while the former winners of the Winged Foot were Voter, Don't Care, Autumn. Killashandra, Princess Pepper, Albert, Afri-cander, Hello, Tradition and Geo. C. Ben-

Many students of betting were surprised when the books did not couple Samson and Filmnap in the Derby. Samson ran in Fred Buriew's colors and Filmnap in Frank O'Nelli's. Both were trained by Burley, who is believed to be O'Neill's partner. The race looked as if Flimnap was sent out to kill off both Accountant and Albert F., after which Samson could come on and win. There was heavy support for Samson for place at Newton Bennington said yesterday that he would not go to Saratoga before August 20. as he is going to take a party of friends in the yacht Venture on the annual cruise of the Brooklyn Yacht Club.

The ring got a drubbing yesterday that made the books glad to get away from the beach. They lost on Frank Gill in the first, on Tom Cogan and New Amsterdam a place in the second, on Salvidere in the third, also Lord Lovat, who was backed from 40 down to 15 across the board. The Derby was also a losing venture for the chalkers, as was the fifth race, in which King Cole carried a ton of money to win, and Red Leaf was taken both ways. The sixth was about a standoff, as the money paid out on Jacquin was offset by the heavy play on Far West and Nannie lodge. There was a good sized coup with viston in the last, Jack McGinnis, who had won a chunk on Frank Gill, taking enough money out of the cash boxes to more than pay the expenses of himself and stable at the It was estimated that the books dropped at least $200,000 on the day.

Brady's Colt Has an Easy Time in $18,000

James B. Brady's Accountant was an easy winner of the $15,000 Brighton Derby, for three-year-olds, one mile and a half, run over a slow track at the Beach yesterday. The Filigrane colt was a prohibitive favorite with practically nothing to beat. He opened at 1 to 3, the big operators backing him down to 1 to 5. P. J. Dwyer's Albert F. was second choice at 5. Frank O'Neill's Flimnap, 20 to 1, and Fred Burlew's Samson, 15 to 1, were the other starters. Martin took a good hold on Accountant and set the pace, at the same time keeping the Filigrane colt in the middle of the track in order to avoid the heavy going near the rail. Lyne was in close attendance with Albert F., while J. Hennessy tried to outrun the pacemakers with Filman. Shaw trailed several lengths away with Samson, who by the way was well supported for the place. At no time was Accountant extended. It was a gallop for him all the way, and when Martin let out a link at the head of the stretch it was all over. Accountant breezed home with three lengths to spare in 2:37 1-5. It was a sharp drive for the place, Shaw whip-ping Samson enough to take it from Albert F.

with three lengths to spare in 2:37 1-5. It was a sharp drive for the place, Shaw whipping Sanfison enough to take it from Albert P. by three parts of a length. Filmnap was eight lengths away.

T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Salvidere, one of the best colts of the year, won the Winged Foot Handicap, for two-year-olds, six furiongs, in remarkable etyle. He pleked up 126 pounds and was the favorite at 7 to 10. Frank O'Neill'a Penarris, 10 to 1, cut out the pace for three furiongs, only to give way to William Gerst's Yowric, 4 to 1, at the half mile. Sewell was third with the favorite, meanwhile, keeping him in the middle of the track. At the head of the stretch Salvidere was let down. In a jiffy he shot to the front and received a royal welcome as he came to the judges an easy winner by a couple of lengths in 1:15. R. H. McCarter Potter's Lord Lovat, 15 to 1; closed with a game rush and nalled the place by a nose, Penarris taking third money from Yowric by a head.

L. O. Appleby's Jacquin, heavily backed at 3, made a clean sweep of the sixth event, a handicap for all ages, at six furiongs. Lyne took him quickly to the front and that settled it, as nothing could get up enough speed to be even dangerous. At the end Jacquin had a length and a half over Bohemia, 10 to 1, with Gold Sifter, a 30 to 1 shot, three lengths behind. Far West, a hot favorite, was badly ridden by Shaw, while Nannie Hodge, 5 to 1, evidently had too much weight, for she was out of it at all stages. The time was 1:14.

Jack McGinnis won two races. Frank Gill, 6 to 5 favorite, made all the pace in the first race, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, beating Somnus, 2 to 1, in a gallop by three lengths in 1:08 3-5. Cave Adsum, 20 to 1, was third. Aviston, backed down to 7, won the last race, a hundoup at six furlongs, in McGinnis's colors, the filly lasting long enough to get the verdict over Cederstrome, 9 to 5 favorite, by three parts of a length in 1:14 1-5. Cederstrome beat Varieties, 5 to 1, by half a length, with The Belle, 5 to 1, close up.

at Ridgewood. The match play in lawn tennis singles at the Ridgewood Golf Club yesterday was reduced to the final round, R. H. Palmer of the home club after a stubborn fight putting out H. B. Register, the University of Pennsylvania crack. The match ran into five sets, deuce games being the order of two of them. Palmer, who used to be a player of the first class, showed brilliant stroking and great resource. He will have to meet C. A. Blyth, Jr., of the Staten Island Cricket and Tennis Club, to whom W. V. Bennett of the West Side L. T. C. defaulted, after two hard sets, which resulted 12-10, 6-1. The finals will be played off on Wednesday and the challenge round on Saturday.

The New York Nationals had a doubly profitable day yesterday. They defeated the Chicagos summarily and the Pittsburgs were beaten in Boston. NEW YORE (N. L.), 7; Chicaop (N. L.), 5. Outward and visible demonstration of base-ball interest attained a pinnadle point yesterday, when the attendance at the Polo Grounds to see the New Yorks and Chicagos grapple was the biggest that ever squeezed together on that historic field. The New Yorks won, on that historic field. The New Yorks won, and a thousand or more persons than saw the best attended game here for the world schampionship last fall were there, worked up to various stages of frenzy.

Not even the winning of a world's championship to top off the second capture of a pennant brought out such a gathering of the baseball clans as streamed to the Polo Grounds yesterday to see what the two time champions could do in a crucial series against the league leaders, it being the case that the twice champions are for the time being the under dogs and have an uphill fight before them to win the pennant a third time. Fresh remembrances of valiant battles fought against stout foes, coupled with a desire to see what could be done against rivals that threaten to dethone the champions, was one combination of circumstances that led to the enormous outpouring. Moreover, the New Yorks have been reenforced recently and are better equipped now than any time this season to play up to last year's form, and that was another reason why the turnstiles clicked music of a faster strain than ever before.

BROOKLYN, 4: CINCINNATI, 0—FIRST GAME.

The Brooklyns, despite the fine work that they have been doing of late, were unable to accomplish more than an even break with the Uncingatis in their double header yesterday at Washington Park. In the first game the Donovans hammered—Fraser to a pulp, and two baggers flew about everywhere, even Stricklett getting one. The score of this game was at 0 o in favor of the Brooklynites, and showed them at their best. In the second game Ewing handed over the horsehide for the Hanlonites from the West, and while it was a tight game he had enough of the mastery to add it to the list of his victories. The Brooklyns were often near breaking up the game, but could not get away with it. The score of the second was 2 to 1 in favor of Cincinnati. Pastorious, who pitched for the locals, did well enough, but errors behind him broke up the effectiveness of his twirling. There was a big crowd, 14,000 persons being present when the second game started. That is a high water mark for Brooklyn in recent times. The scores:

Twenty-five yachts started yesterday afternoon in the first regatta to count for the championship of the Yacht Racing Association of Gravesend Bay. The boats were divided into eight classes, but of these only Classes N. P. Q and S were racing for championship points. The other divisions were competing for prizes offered by the Marine and Field Club, under whose auspices the races were held.

The winners of the championship divisions were S. E. Version's Vivian II. in Class N. F. J. Havens's Jig Step in Class P. Hendon Chubb's Spider in Class S. The other and Camp's Beta in Class S. The other winners were the yawl Sakana. Richard Rummell's Careless in the Q special class and the catboat Martha M. and the Ace in the Bensonhurst dory class.

Though Spider was the first boat to finish in the Q division, the Chubb boat may not get the race, as Commodore Childs protested Spider for fouling Joy at the Bensonhurst mark in the last round. Spider in turn protested Sactts for crowding her at the mark and so causing the foul on Joy. AT TRENTON. AT FREEHOLD.

ATHLETES IN CHARITY MEET CHAMPIONS COMPETE FOR SAY FRANCISCO FUND.

Ray Bory Beats His Own World's Eccord in Standing Broad Jamp—Gilles, Will Small Handleap, Wins Hammer Throw From John Flangan—Many Starters.

For the benefit of the non-sectarian orphan asylum fund of San Francisco an athletic carpival of large dimensions was held yesterday at the American League baseball park. There was no cinder path, but a white tape, pegged with a line of flags, marked out a quarter mile circuit on the green sward, and though this impromptu course was not the very fastest the athletes liked the going, as it was nice and springy. All day the weather was threatening and warm and it looked like a storm, but it held fine until the events were run off. The programme consisted of twenty-one contests, and to a man it drew all the local cracks champions, handleap men, novices and a big sprinkling of the schoolboy runners.

Exceptional interest centred in the field events, and those who were on edge for things sensational were satisfied with the result of the standing broad jump. Ray C. Ewry of the New York A. C., winner of the event at the Olympic games and holder of the world's amateur record, gained first place, with a leap of 11 feet 6 inches. This beat the former world's record of 11 feet 4% inches, made by Ewry himself at bt. Louis in 1904. The ground looked a trifle downhill, and in order to have no question about the record James E. Sullivan had the ground tested with a spirit level, and it was found to grade only about an eighth of an inch, which does not militate against the acceptance of the

The big men had a warm session with the weights. In the hammer Gillies of the New York A. C., with an allowance of 5 feet, weights. In the hammer Gillies of the New York A. C., with an allowance of 5 feet, nipped Flanagan, the scratch man, for first place, with a fling of 160 feet 7 inches, Flanagan, who had some trouble in keeping the circle while executing his best efforts, sent the implement 164 feet 5½ inches. Denis Horgan of the New York A. C. showed that he is to be reckened as a point winner in this event, for he accomplished the fine throw of 445 feet 10½ inches. Sheridan had little trouble in securing first honors in the discus from scratch with 132 feet 6 inches. Flanagan captured first prize in the 58 pound weight from the post of honor, his distance being 37 feet 10 inches.

The three miles scratch brought out a field of eleven starters, including Bonhag and Daly of Olympian fame and Nelson of the Pastime A. C. The latter led for the first mile, which was covered in 4 minutes 52 2-5 seconds, and then Daly took up the running, with Nelson and Bonhag close up. Daly still showed the way, at two miles, the time being 10 minutes 16 seconds. Bonhag then went to the front and Nelson began to tire and fell behind. Two laps from home Bonhag began to draw away from Daly and he finally won by 25 yards.

A crowd of about 2,500 persons was present, but it was stated that this was by no means a criterion of the receipts, as many tickets had been disposed of to people who did not use them.
